D.O. No. 5173

Bangalore, 2nd December 1913.

DIARY No.

My dear Sir,

I beg to remind you of the conversation I had with you regarding Mr. E. Rama Rao, B.A., Inspector of Co-operative Societies. I feel that in consideration of the services he rendered while under me, it is my duty to bring his case to your favourable consideration. While I was with Sir P.N. Krishna Murti, he was my personal clerk and when I became Registrar of Co-operative Societies, I took him as my Head clerk and promoted him as Inspector. He worked very enthusiastically and intelligently under me and in consideration of the hard work

work he has had in the early days of the Co-operative movement when all of us had to struggle with vested interests, I thought he would be given an Amildar's appointment. He is fully deserving in all respects and has qualified himself for the place and I hope you will be pleased to recognise his work by making him an Amildar.

Yours sincerely,

To

M. Visvesvaraya, Esq., C.I.E.,
Dewan of Mysore,
Bangalore.
